

“I’m Not Sick, I Don’t Need Help!”

LEAP® To Help Persons with Mental Illness Accept Treatment and Services

Instructor: Sarah Cranbury, LCSW

The LEAP Course helps persons with mental illness that are either non-adherent, or only partially adherent, become fully engaged in treatment and services; and to cooperate with persons who are trying to help them.

This course involves didactic, experiential, and role-play scenarios.

LEAP is unique in that the same evidence-based practices can be taught to an array of individuals:

- MENTAL HEALTH PROVIDERS (psychiatrists, social workers, nurses, psychologists, case managers, crisis workers, consumer peer counsellors, etc.)
- FAMILY CAREGIVERS AND FRIENDS (of persons with mental illness)
- LAW ENFORCEMENT & CORRECTIONS
